the Pulpit for such purposes and to the Collector of Tinnevelly that the Government disapprove of his participation in the objects and pursuits of Missionaries—stating further that he has observed in the Public papers that Soolochenum's school at which the Minor Zemindars, of Yellamoody and Attenkary were improperly placed by the Revenue Authorities of Tinnevelly has been made over to the Missionaries, and if the two Zemindars are amongst the scholars transferred without the consent of their relations the proceeding will have the character of an improper exercise of the control over minors vested by the Regulations.
Minute by the Honorable Mr. Chamier—. Observing that it is quite competent to the Government to issue any orders to the Chaplains and furnish those who disobey them, and that every succeeding Government from Sir T. Munro's time has visited in suitable terms the conduct of those public servants who have employed official influence in matters calculated to offend the religious feelings of the Natives.	23d August 1844.	11	22d October 1844.	....	4283
